❖ PARISH NOTES

Today's Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other story tells us about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person.

Jairus is described as a synagogue official, distraught over his daughter's poor health, he approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her. As Jesus leaves with Jairus, a second person who seeks healing from Jesus is woman with a hemorrhage. This woman secretly touches Jesus from behind and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him. Jesus' disciples, always a little clueless in Mark's Gospel, help us envision the scene. The crowds are pushing in on Jesus, and yet he, knowing that power has gone out of him, asks who touched him. The woman could have remained anonymous, yet at Jesus' question she steps forward and acknowledges what she has done. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace. At this point, we can imagine Jairus's impatience with Jesus; his daughter is dying and Jesus hasn't helped him yet. As if to build a sense of urgency, messengers suddenly arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear: his daughter has died. Jesus curiously ignores their message and reassures Jairus. When they arrive at Jairus's home, they find family and friends mourning the girl's death. Jesus enters the room of the dead girl, takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus has not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life. The contrasts between Jairus and the woman are stark and revealing. One is a man, the other is a woman. One is a public official, an important person in the community. The other is a woman who has lost everything to find a cure to a condition that separated her from the community. One approaches Jesus publicly. The other approaches Jesus secretly. Yet in each case, faith leads them to seek out Jesus in their time of need. The Gospel concludes with Jesus' instructions to remain silent about this miracle. Repeatedly, those who witness Jesus' power and authority are instructed to not speak of what they have witnessed. These instructions appear impossible to obey, and it is difficult to understand the purpose of these instructions. But in each case, they seem to emphasize the fact that each individual, including the reader of Mark's Gospel, must, in the end, make his or her own judgment about Jesus' identity. Each individual must make his or her own act of faith in affirming Jesus as God's Son.

*The Bible does not light the fuses of people to be in a personal relationship with Jesus.
Having people like YOU in our lives who speak from the heart for & about & through Jesus – THAT is what lights our fuses.*

YOU are one of those people.

*YOU have been in our lives EVER so briefly – frankly too briefly.
However, it has been long enough to inspire us and launch us forward.*

It reminds us that people come into our lives for

A Reason OR A Season OR A Lifetime

For some of us it may have been for a reason

However, for most of us, it has been a season.

A way too brief season, but yet a season.

To you – Father Kennedy – we offer as YOU retire

KNOW THIS –

*YOU are welcome to stay. YOU are welcome to return to visit – anytime you might like.
There are LOTS of spare & available guest rooms in these houses – and many open doors.*

We – the Saint Peter the Fisherman Family

We extend our thoughts to you

YOU are amazing

YOU are awesome

YOU are always welcome here

You will remain in our hearts

You will remain in our thoughts

You will remain in our prayers

We Thank YOU for being YOU & giving of yourself to us – ever so briefly.

Father Kennedy, Wing Squadron Chaplain,

We Salute YOU,

We Honor YOU,

We Thank YOU

Please KNOW that We will Miss YOU!
