The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.

Altar Flowers

Donations for Altar Flowers

"Every flower is a soul blossoming in nature."

Gerald DeNerval

Each week the flowers on the altar may be given in honor of or in memory of someone you love. An announcement will appear in the bulletin that lists the name of the person being honored or memorialized. It is a lovely way to bring that special someone to our church family's attention. It lets us know how much you love them and reminds us, possibly, how much we love them, too.

The suggested donation is $30.00. You may make this donation using the envelopes labeled flowers located in the church foyer. Contact Beth Michne at 252-670-7440 with any questions.
