❖ PARISH NOTES

Our commitment to Christ will be put to the test.

We will hear whispered warnings and denunciations, as Jeremiah does in today's First Reading. Even so-called friends will try to trap us and trip us up.

For His sake we will bear insults and be made outcasts—even in our own homes, we hear in today's Psalm.

As Jeremiah tells us, we must expect that God will challenge our faith in Him, and probe our minds and hearts, to test the depths of our love. "Do not be afraid," Jesus assures us three times in today's Gospel.

Though He may permit us to suffer for our faith, our Father will never forget or abandon us. As Jesus assures us today, everything unfolds in His Providence, under His watchful gaze—even the falling of the tiniest sparrow to the ground. Each one of us is precious to Him. Steadfast in this faith, we must resist the tactics of Satan. He is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul in Gehenna, or hell.

We are to seek God, as the Psalmist says. Zeal for the Lord's house, for the heavenly kingdom of the Father, should consume us, as it consumed Jesus (see John 2:17). As Jesus bore the insults of those who blasphemed God, so should we (see Romans 15:3).

By the gracious gift of himself, Jesus bore the transgressions of the world, Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In rising from the dead, He has shown us that God rescues the life of the poor, that He does not spurn His own when they are in distress. In His great mercy, He will turn toward us, as well. He will deliver us from the power of the wicked. That is why we proclaim His name from the housetops, as Jesus tells us. That is why we sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Eucharist. We are confident in Jesus' promise—that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our heavenly Father. –

Sunday, June 28th – the last Sunday in June is when Saint Peter the Fisherman CELEBRATES “Graduate Sunday”

For 2020 we will CELEBRATE – Macy Tyson who will be graduating from Pamlico HS to go to NC State as part of NROTC. Macy has been celebrating with this Saint Peter the Fisherman Parish Family for many years including 1st Communion and Confirmation as well as participating in our Annual Veteran’s Day event.

PLEASE write a note for Macy’s “CONGRATULATIONS BOX” and let her know we will be keeping her in our prayers as she enters the next chapter of her life.

If you are not currently coming to church in person you are welcome to mail a note to the church and we will be sure it gets into her “CONGRATULATIONS BOX” so that you can be part of the celebration. Even if you are far away you can be close in heart.

Thank You in advance for your participation.

We collect aluminum cans to recycle. This money goes to the upkeep of our cemetery. Leave cans in the kitchen in the can marked “Aluminum Cans”
Thank you for your support of our cemetery.

Offertory Baskets will be placed in back of the church for both collections.

Offerings for last week
Regular collection $1,370.00
Second collection $95.
